

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

KEYON R. GEORGE,

Petitioner,

v.

JAMES E. TILTON, Secretary of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation,

Respondent.

Civil No. 06cv1810-BTM (RBB)

ORDER:

(1) SUA SPONTE SUBSTITUTING RESPONDENTS; AND,

(2) NOTIFYING PETITIONER OF POSSIBLE DISMISSAL OF PETITION
 FOR FAILURE TO SATISFY FILING
 FEE REQUIREMENT

Petitioner, a state prisoner proceeding pro se, has filed a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254, together with a motion to proceed in forma pauperis.

SUA SPONTE SUBSTITUTION OF RESPONDENTS

A review of the Petition reveals that Petitioner has failed to name a proper respondent. Petitioner has named the People of the State of California and Bill Lockyer, the Attorney General of California, as Respondents. On federal habeas, a state prisoner must name the state officer having custody of him as the respondent. Ortiz-Sandoval v. Gomez, 81 F.3d 891, 894 (9th Cir. 1996) (citing Rule 2(a), 28 U.S.C. foll. § 2254).

A long standing rule in the Ninth Circuit holds “that a petitioner may not seek [a writ of] habeas corpus against the State under . . . [whose] authority . . . the petitioner is in custody. The actual person who is [the] custodian [of the petitioner] must be the respondent.” Ashley v.

1 Washington, 394 F.2d 125, 126 (9th Cir. 1968). This requirement exists because a writ of 2 habeas corpus acts upon the custodian of the state prisoner, the person who will produce “the
3 body” if directed to do so by the Court. “Both the warden of a California prison and the Director
4 of Corrections for California have the power to produce the prisoner.” Ortiz-Sandoval, 81 F.3d
5 at 895. Thus, “the People of the State of California” is not a proper respondent.

6 Additionally, Bill Lockyer, the Attorney General of the State of California, is not a proper
7 respondent in this action. Rule 2 of the Rules following § 2254 provides that the state officer
8 having custody of the petitioner shall be named as respondent. Rule 2(a), 28 U.S.C. foll. § 2254.
9 However, “[i]f the petitioner is not yet in custody – but may be subject to future custody – under 10 the state-court judgment being contested, the petition must name as respondents both the officer
11 who has current custody and the attorney general of the state where the judgement was entered.”
12 Rule 2 (b), 28 U.S.C. foll. § 2254. Here, there is no basis for Petitioner to have named the 13 Attorney General as a respondent in this action.

14 In order for this Court to entertain the Petition filed in this action, the warden in charge
15 of the state correctional facility in which Petitioner is presently confined or the Secretary of the 16 California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation must be named as a Respondent.
17 Brittingham v. United States, 982 F.2d 378, 379 (9th Cir. 1992) (per curiam). The Court 18 therefore sua sponte substitutes James E. Tilton, the Secretary of the California Department of 19 Corrections as Respondent for the People of the State of California and Bill Lockyer.

20 MOTION TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS

21 Petitioner has not provided the Court with sufficient information to determine Petitioner’s
22 financial status. A request to proceed in forma pauperis made by a state prisoner must include
23 a certificate from the warden or other appropriate officer showing the amount of money or 24 securities Petitioner has on account in the institution. Rule 3(a)(2), 28 U.S.C. foll. § 2254; Local 25 Rule 3.2.

26 Petitioner is advised that in order to avoid dismissal of his case, he must either pay the 27 $5.00 filing fee or submit adequate proof of his inability to pay the filing fee no later than 28 November 20, 2006. If Petitioner does not pay the $5.00 filing fee or submit adequate proof of

1 his inability pay the fee by November 20, 2006, his case will be dismissed without prejudice, and
 2 he will have to begin again by filing a new petition which may be barred by the statute of
 3 limitations.<sup>1</sup> The Clerk of Court is directed to mail Petitioner a blank Motion to Proceed
 4 in Forma Pauperis form, including the proper Prison Certificate form.

5 IT IS SO ORDERED.

6 DATED: September 20, 2006

Ruben B. Brooks
 United States Magistrate Judge

13 _____
 14 <sup>1</sup> The Court cautions Petitioner that under the Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act
 15 of 1996 (AEDPA) a one-year period of limitation shall apply to a petition for a writ of habeas corpus by a person in custody pursuant to the judgment of a State court. The limitation period shall run from the latest of:

16 (A) the date on which the judgment became final by the conclusion of direct review or the expiration of the time for seeking such 17 review;

18 (B) the date on which the impediment to filing an application created by State action in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States is removed, if the applicant was prevented from filing by 19 such State action;

20 (C) the date on which the constitutional right asserted was initially recognized by the Supreme Court, if the right has been newly recognized by the Supreme Court and made retroactively applicable to 21 cases on collateral review; or

22 (D) the date on which the factual predicate of the claim or claims presented could have been discovered through the exercise of due diligence.

23 28 U.S.C.A. § 2244(d)(1)(A)-(D) (West Supp. 2006).

24 The statute of limitations does not run while a properly filed state habeas corpus petition is 25 pending. 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d)(2); see Nino v. Galaza, 183 F.3d 1003, 1006 (9th Cir. 1999). But see 26 Bonner v. Carey, 425 F.3d 1145, 1148-49 (9th Cir. 2006) (holding that state application for post-conviction relief which is ultimately dismissed as untimely was neither “properly filed” nor “pending,” 27 and therefore does not toll the statute of limitations), as amended 439 F.3d 993, petition for cert. filed,
 –U.S.–, No. 05-11438 (June 5, 2006). However, absent some other basis for tolling, the statute of 28 limitations does run while a federal habeas petition is pending. Duncan v. Walker, 533 U.S. 167, 181-82
 (2001).
